7. Profile Sheet 2015

Complete and submit this form by Thursday 5th March 2015. All participating schools must submit list of performers: name and year level. Performers must be full time students. Group leader/student must describe how their group will start NOT the teacher (no.11). Supporters – six maximum (3 girls, 3 boys). Children are not permitted in changing areas/tents.

8. Specific Rules

Rule 4 for Competitive Groups – photo I.D is no longer required. There are no further amendments to specific rules. Refer to handout - can access this through the ASB Polyfest website.

Rule 6: Composers may select any verse as they wish for their Imene Tuki theme.

Non Competitive Groups – minimum of four items

Positives

9. The ASB Polyfest helps our children to value their cultural heritage as well as training them to be future leaders of their respective schools and communities. It's good to see more schools participating this year.

10. Concerns

Students showed lack of respect both on stage and off stage. It's important for students to show respect for teachers, tutors and parents.

11. Trophies

Teacher and student leader must collect trophy at prize giving to prevent lost/missing trophies.

12. Judges

Two judges from Rarotonga judging the Cook Islands stage this year 2015.

13. Programme draw - TBC

14. Questions
